

LEAH SMITH

ENGINEERING GRADUATE

When did you start on the scheme:

September 2022

My TIME ON THE SCHEME:

Sept 22 – July 23: Project Engineering, Bournville

- Managing Capital Projects (>£300K equipment)
- Working closely with manufacturing line teams to coordinate downtime and communicate installation plans
- Managing installations, responsibility over contractors
- Producing documentation (e.g PDR, FMEA)
- Working within IL6S framework

July 23 – April 24: R&D Process, Bournville

- Working on confidential innovation projects for some of our biggest brands
- Building understanding of upcoming equipment and tools on the market, selecting and verifying the relevant ones for our products
- Inline measurement methods

April 24 – April 25: R&D Seasonals Packaging, Bournville

- Working within IL6S framework to deliver projects with Copackers/ Co-manufacturers
- Reviewing and approving new artwork and packaging designs
- Working in cross functional teams with a range of different departments

